

WEATHER REPORT
SAN FRANCISCO AND VICINITY—Showers this afternoon and cloudy Thursday; continued cool weather; brisk southwesterly winds.
NORTHERN CALIFORNIA—Cloudy
tonight and Thursday with showers this evening and tonight.

Oakland Tribune.

The newspaper that gives the best news service is the paper to place your advertising with. THE TRIBUNE gives all the news.

VOL. LII. OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA, WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 11, 1899. NO. 83

WAR HAS BEGUN IN SOUTH AFRICA.

Orange Free State Troops Have Invaded Natal and Are Now Advancing on Ladysmith.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—A dispatch from Pietermaritzburg, Natal, says: "Intense excitement prevails, owing to persistent reports that the Orange Free State troops have already crossed the border and are advancing upon Ladysmith."

BOERS TO ADVANCE ON NATAL.

CAPE TOWN, Oct. 11.—Sir Alfred Milner, Governor of Cape Colony and British High Commissioner of South Africa has issued a proclamation declaring all persons abetting the enemy in a state of war with the British guilty of high treason.

The Boers are expected to occupy Newcastle, Natal, tomorrow morning.

Conyngnam Greene, British Diplomatic Agent in the Transvaal, is expected to leave Pretoria this evening.—Wednesday.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—Pietermaritzburg dispatch: There are persistent reports that Orange Free State troops have already crossed the border and are advancing on Ladysmith. The Boers have entered Natal by the important pass Cundy Cough, thirty-seven miles south-west of Newcastle.

BOER CONSULATE CLOSED.
LONDON, Oct. 11.—Montagu White, Consul General for the South African Republic here, closed the consulate here this afternoon and left for the continent.

THE SAVAGES STIRRING.
PIETERMARITZBURG, Oct. 11.—The Boers are becoming restless and are congregating on the border.

PRETORIA, Oct. 11.—The Official Gazette contains a proclamation calling upon all burghers domiciled outside the republic to present themselves forthwith for service, failing which they will be fined, imprisoned and their property confiscated.

OUR CONSUL'S SERVICES.
LONDON, Oct. 11.—The Foreign Office confirms the report from Washington that Great Britain has asked the United States Consul in the Transvaal to represent British interests there during hostilities.

ROSEBERRY NOW FOR WAR.
LONDON, Oct. 11.—Lord Roseberry, Liberal leader and former Premier, has come out in a letter supporting government and putting politics in background, in view of the Boer war.

THE ALAN LINE SIBERIAN HAS BEEN RED TO CARRY A THOUSAND CANADIANS FROM MONTREAL TO SOUTH AFRICA.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—If the latest reports from South Africa are true, the Boers have not waited for the expiration of the time limit, but have already crossed the border, as they would be entitled to do, both in virtue of the notification contained in the last paragraph of the ultimatum, and also of the British acknowledgment.

All indications go to show that Great Britain is so unpopular as to be compelled to remain on the defensive for some weeks. All the aggressiveness must come from the Boers.

From that point, however, in the event of a further advance, they would probably and British forces at Ladysmith and Dundee capable of repelling their attacks.

BRITISH REINFORCEMENTS.
At Ladysmith, the garrison, which has to guard against an attack from the Orange Free State, was reinforced today by the Gordon Highlanders and a strong contingent of the Indian troops.

And the authorities are now confident of their ability to deal out an unpleasant surprise to the Boers in the event of an attempt to rush the position.

William A. Boscow, manager of the Excelsior Redwood Company, has begun proceedings through Attorney E. A. Hoffman to secure a divorce from his wife, Amelia A. Boscow.

The ground on which he asks for a legal separation is that of extreme cruelty. Boscow alleges that his wife has caused him great mental suffering by refusing to talk to him and ignoring him generally. For the last year Boscow has been living away from home.

The couple were married about twelve years ago and have three children.

Boscow ascribes his family troubles to Dr. H. Anderson, who with his wife went to live at the Boscow home about two years ago. A little over a year ago Anderson and his wife left the Boscow home and took up their residence in another part of the city. Shortly after?

ward Boscow had Anderson arrested on a charge of practicing medicine without a license. The case was tried in the Police Court and Anderson was acquitted. The charges against Boscow with having him arrested through malice were dropped.

The controversy that followed it developed that Boscow accused Dr. Anderson with having caused him great mental suffering by refusing to talk to him and ignoring him generally. For the last year Boscow has been living away from home.

Some interesting developments are expected.

WAS DRUGGED AND ROBBED.

Soldier Harvey Recovers Reason and Tells of Brutal Treatment.

James J. Harvey, the soldier who was recommended for commitment to an insane asylum yesterday, has nearly recovered the use of his mental faculties. He talked quite lucidly to Judge Ogden this morning. According to his story he was drugged and robbed in San Francisco three days ago.

Harvey says that he drew the remainder of his pay, about $50, and took lodgings on Fifth street, opposite the United States Mint.

After purchasing some clothes he went out to spend the evening. The last thing he remembers was drinking with a stranger in one of the saloons on Eastbary Coast. When he woke up the next morning he found himself in a room with a stranger.

The latter told Harvey that he had picked him up on the sidewalk.

Harvey does not remember how he wandered to this city.

Chaplain Isaacs, who was in the same regiment with Harvey, corroborates his statement in regard to his having received his pay, and says that he has a good reputation.

Judge Ogden postponed the further examination of the patient until tomorrow to see if he will not fully recover.

When arrested in this city Monday afternoon, Harvey had been standing rigid in one position for about four hours.

One of the prettiest and dearest, not to say distinguished, weddings of the season took place in Oakland this afternoon.

It was that of Miss Belle Mhoon, the daughter of Major Mhoon, and granddaughter of the late Judge Samuel McKee.

By this ceremony one of the most popular young ladies in Oakland became the bride of Mr. Fred Magee, son of Thomas Magee, the well-known San Francisco real estate man.

The ceremony took place at four o'clock in the church of Rev. Dr. John B. Caldwell on Telegraph avenue, and was performed by its pastor and Rev. Robert Ritchie, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

The little, gem-like edifice on Telegraph avenue was nearly filled by about two hundred of the family connections of the bride and groom and the couple's intimate personal friends.

The maid of honor was Miss Amy McKee. The young ladies acting as bridesmaids were Miss Florence Dunham, Miss Florence Selby, Miss Julia Garber and Miss Boss, of San Francisco.

The best man was Walter Magee, a brother of the groom, and these gentlemen served as ushers: McKee, Mhoon, Sheffield, Sanborn, Frank King, Van Buren, Horace Miller and Samuel Bell McKee, uncle of the bride.

The marriage will be followed this evening by a reception and banquet at the home of the bride, the Mhoon home, No. 107 Adeline street.

weather is somewhat threatening, their landing may be postponed until tomorrow morning.

MARCHING TO THE PRESIDIO.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 11.—The weather is clear and the Kansas soldiers have landed and are marching to the Presidio. Great enthusiasm prevails.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 11.—Reports from chairman of the sub-committees of the general committee of reception to the volunteers of Washington present at last night's meeting of that body indicate that practically every detail of the celebration and reception to the troops, from the time the transports land till the end of the celebration have been provided for. The Executive Committee reported that the full sum necessary for the celebration, namely, $12,000, is in sight. Authority was conferred on the subcommittee members to provide quarters for the volunteers as well as the State militia.

FALL FESTIVAL A FIXTURE.
Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—It has been decided to make the fall festival, which comes to a close tonight, an annual fixture. An elaborate agricultural display will be one of the striking features in future years.

The National Association of Farmers' Institute Workers, now in session in this city, has decided to promote the scheme.

To Raise the Price of Soap.
NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—Manufacturers of toilet soap from all parts of the United States are holding sessions at the Fifth avenue hotel. The object of the conference is to raise and regulate prices. While raw materials have advanced sharply, competition has materially reduced prices to jobbers and retailers.

THE TARTAR DOCKED.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 11.—The transport Tartar with the Twentieth Kansas regiment and over 60 discharged soldiers, has not yet been released from quarantine. The health officers are conducting their examination of the passengers as rapidly as possible, but it is very doubtful if the vessel will be released from quarantine until some time this afternoon.

It has not yet been determined when the soldiers will be allowed to land, as it all depends upon the time the doctors will finish their examination.

General Funston is still on board and will in all probability remain with his men until after the vessel has been released from quarantine. It is understood that the health of the men is good.

THE TARTAR DOCKED.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 11.—The transport Tartar with the Twentieth Kansas regiment and over 60 discharged soldiers, has not yet been released from quarantine. The health officers are conducting their examination of the passengers as rapidly as possible, but it is very doubtful if the vessel will be released from quarantine until some time this afternoon.

It has not yet been determined when the soldiers will be allowed to land, as it all depends upon the time the doctors will finish their examination.

General Funston is still on board and will in all probability remain with his men until after the vessel has been released from quarantine. It is understood that the health of the men is good.

SECRETS OF CITY COUNCIL

Members' Plans Would Cost the City Five Million Dollars.

In response to a circular call from President Rowe of the Council an executive meeting of the City Council was held last evening in the City Clerk's office to consider the bond plan which is proposed to submit to the people of Oakland.

The members present were Barstow, Cuvellier, Girard, Kramm, Meese, Upton, Rowe, Schaffer and Stetson. Those absent were Most and Taylor.

The meeting was an excited one, lasting until nearly 11 o'clock. After the discussion of the two main propositions, the bond for a municipal water plant and for a salt water street sprinkling plant, on both of which the sentiment of the councilmen seemed to be pretty evenly divided, the meeting took on the character of a sort of wholesale go-as-you-please bond extension scheme.

Each member by motion proposed an addition to the list of bonding improvements for anything that he wanted or that he designed any portion of the city wanted. The general disposition seemed to be to gratify the Improvement Clubs. These motions were put and invariably carried without argument or opposition.

By this process the sum total of the bonds which the Council, so far as this meeting is concerned, suggests to submit to a vote of the people, was made to approach the five million-dollar mark. The figures are as follows:

Municipal water plant	$2,000,000
Salt water sprinkling plant	75,000
Parks	300,000
Wharves	600,000
Engine houses	100,000
Schools	200,000
Lock at Twelfth street dam	90,000
Sewerage	500,000
Second ward plaza	50,000
Telegraph avenue improvement	100,000
San Pablo avenue improvement	100,000
Wharves foot Broadway to Grove street	100,000
Art gallery	25,000
Reclaiming North Oakland marsh	35,000
New City Hall	300,000
Total	$4,475,000

The two items of this list provoking discussion were those relating to water plants.

Councilman Cuvellier led off by making a big fight for the bonding of the city for a municipal water supply.

Councilman Girard backed up this view in general terms.

Barstow, Stetson, Schaffer and Upton were inclined to throw cold water on the Cuvellier enthusiasm, by expressing their doubts as to the adequacy of the proposed supply. They were not against a municipal water plant, but were dubious about depending upon a "hole in the ground," as one of their number expressed it. It was also suggested that whereas the sum of two millions of dollars has been named for this purpose, the cost of pipes and machinery has doubled since Mr. Dingus plied the city for $1,000,000, wherefore it might now cost the city three millions to duplicate it. This, as was afterwards pointed out, just before the meeting adjourned, would bring the total for which the city would be bonded to give every section its desired improvements, to considerably more than $5,000,000, grazing the legal bonding limit.

The salt water city street sprinkling plant received somewhat similar treatment. Its sanitary aspects were presented affirmatively by members only to be traversed by others. Both classes of debaters used statements from Street Superintendent Miller's report on this subject in support of their views.

The Superintendent, it was asserted, had declared that experience had satisfied him of the efficiency and healthfulness of salt water street sprinkling, which was answered by a citation from a later portion of the same report admitting that no data on the matter could be given, as no city in this country was using salt water for sprinkling streets.

These arguments left the Council's members apparently in the dark on this question, so far as arriving at one mind was concerned, although it was agreed that it was the duty of the Council to submit this feature of the bonding proposition to the people, independently of the judgment of the Council.

RAIN QUENCHES
FOREST FIRES.

Great Damage Done to Pleasanton Hay and Grapes.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 11.—The Washington soldiers who arrived on the Pennsylvania are being entertained today by the delegation of Washington citizens who came here to welcome the boys home. The regiment has been split up into detachments and different parties of the Washingtonians are taking the boys to points of interest around the city, lurching them and doing other things to make the day a pleasant one.

Governor Rogers of Washington and his staff will be one of the party to welcome the Kansas soldiers when they land from the Tartar. Arrangements have been made for the Washington regiment to entertain the Kansas regiment at a dinner on Monday night, tomorrow, the time depending on the landing of the Kansas.

Suit to Foreclose.
B. C. Hawes, an administrator of the estate of Louise Baerle, deceased, has begun suit against Emily A. Dunn and others to foreclose a mortgage of $1,300.

WASHINGTON ST.
OAKLAND.
Do you value your eyesight?
Then don't wear glasses if they are not right. Each eye should be tested separately, as no two eyes are alike. I charge nothing for testing.

F. W. LAUFER
Succesor to C. E. WOOD.
Located at WISART'S PHARMACY
COR. 10TH AND WASHINGTON

LINDA VISTA
JUST FINISHED—SOLD.

APPROACHING COMPLETION—Nine rooms, bath, storage room and basement; totally different arrangement from foregoing, but equally complete as to detail, construction and finish; lot 22 x160; monthly payments.

BEING ERRECTED—Seven rooms and attic; very cosy and attractive; details can be arranged to suit purchaser; lot 50x120; inspect the construction; monthly payments.

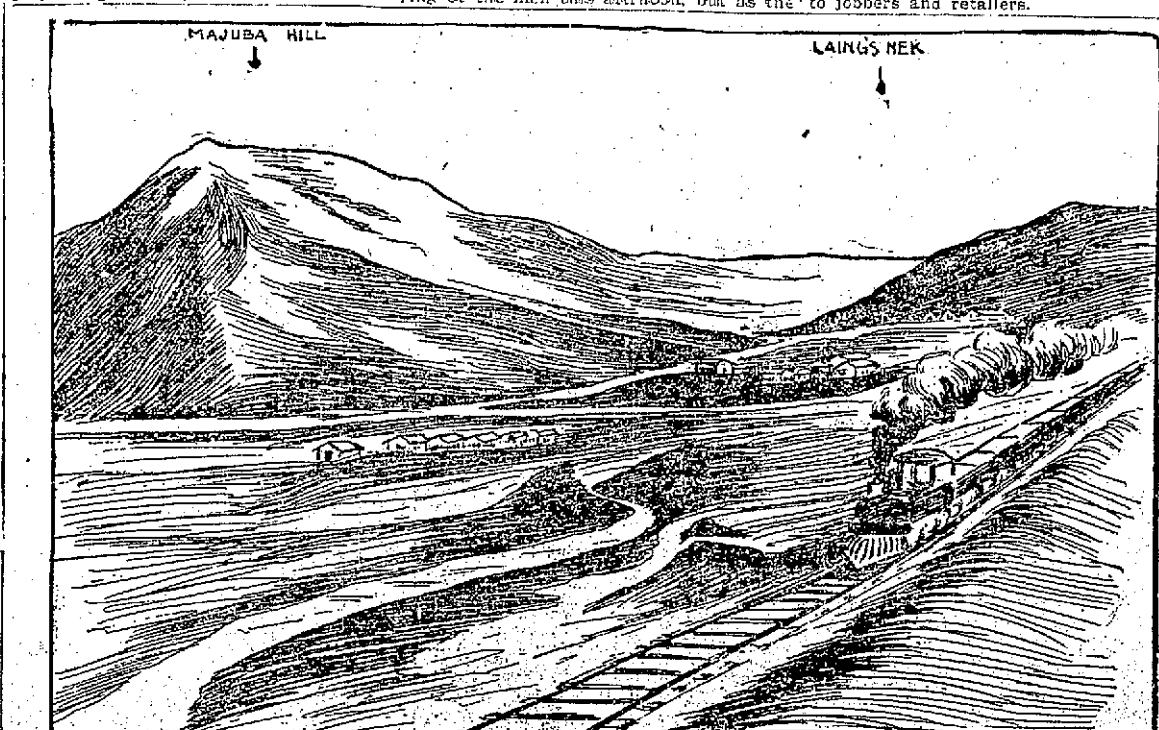

Heron & Holcomb
OAKLAND SAN FRANCISCO
1080 BROADWAY CROCKER BUILDING

WM. J. DINGEE
903 Broadway, ROOM 10
OAKLAND, SECOND FLOOR
CARRIAGES AT OFFICE.

Build Now
$10.00 per foot $15.00 per foot
$12.50 per foot $17.50 per foot

Lots any Size
Between 32nd and 36th Streets
Grove St. and San Pablo Ave.

On Your Own Terms.
Street Work all Done.

Boer Army Is Reported to Be Concentrating at Laing's Nek Pass for the Descent Upon Natal

Oakland Tribune
PUBLISHED DAILY (Sunday excepted)
—at—
413, 415 and 417 EIGHTH STREET
—by the—
TRIBUNE PUBLISHING COMPANY.
WILLIAM E. DARGIE, President.
Delivered by Carrier
—at—
35c per Month

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Any subscriber not receiving The Tribune regularly, will please send a notice to this office and the complaint will be attended to at once.

The Eastern offices of the Oakland Tribune are situated at 230 to 234 Temple Court, New York City, and at 317 and 319 U. S. Express Building, Chicago, with Mr. E. Katz as manager.

AMUSEMENTS.

Macdonough—"Macbeth."
Dewey—"The Two Orphans."
Columbia—"The Two Orphans."
Grand Opera House—"Glorio-Glorio."
Tivoli—"Catalina."
California—"Catalina."
Orpheum—"Vanderbilt."
Alcazar—"The Penman."
Oakland Race Track—Races today and tomorrow.

EPICURES AT SUELL MOUND PARK.

Sunday, October 15th—Moonlight picnic of the Swedish-American Political Club, to 11 P. M.

WEDNESDAY.....OCTOBER 11, 1899.

It appears to be pretty hard for anyone to get "three sheets in the wind" around New York nowadays.

A number of Scotch banks are said to be in liquidation as a result of tying up millions of dollars in whisky. That sounds like a natural sequence, though.

John Bull has been given a surprise. To be ordered off the grass by Oom Paul was scarcely what he expected, and now he will have to try to make his bluff good.

Still another note from Andree—everything, in fact, but the explorer himself. By the way, what do experts say as to the handwriting on these various missives? Nothing ever seems to develop as to any investigation on those lines.

Germany has been invaded by the trust, a cotton spinners' combination having been formed to control that industry. They won't be able to "spin us such yarns" in the future as to what a popular government exists under the young Kaiser's rule.

If that story gets back East as to how 40,000 gallons of wine were used to quench a forest fire at Santa Cruz over 49 renunciation of lightning cigars with hundred dollar bills is likely to return. The Easterners always have been inclined to consider us as extravagant as we regard their ideas about us.

McKinley can make as neat a speech as any of them, as has been instanced time and again, and is very happily shown in his address at Chicago this week. "From Plymouth Rock to the Philippines the grand triumphal march of human liberty has never paused" was a charming way to sum up the present situation.

The Yaguas are said to be tired of their war with Mexico. There is a good way to get a rest if they really want it, for Mexico would be only too glad to cry quits and let everything remain just as it is. The tribesmen are unconquerable under the present conditions, and an attempt to subdue them is merely a waste of men and money.

Strange how things travel in circles. Each of the new oil corporations has to pay a fee of $10 to the Secretary of State in order to secure its charter, and later on that official turns the money over to the State Library fund. This, of course, is for the benefit of the bookworms who burn the midnight oil and the corporations are formed to develop.

Gold is becoming scarce in Europe, and if the Transvaal trouble results in the temporary closing of the African mines the Old World will be in sore straits for the yellow metal. It will be rather interesting to have them coming over here to borrow from us, in view of the way conditions were reversed when Cleveland was in charge of the national pocketbook.

The discovery that the dead burglar is Bert Wilson is indeed a startling climax to the Alameda tragedy. Few more sensational chapters can be found in the annals of crime than that relating to Majors and Willmore, the two Oakland boys who elected to walk in other than the straight and narrow path, and each of whom came to a tragic end ere well in the '90's.

The death of Warden Aull of Folsom is regretted by Republican and Democrat alike, for although he was a staunch adherent of the latter party, he was generally admitted for his many qualities and his sterling business capacity and integrity. Not even the shadow of a scandal rested upon the Folsom penitentiary during the twelve years of his incumbency, and his passing away means the loss of one of the most noted penologists in the country.

Our Board of Supervisors could well afford to appropriate $200 from the advertising fund for the reception of the Montanans and Kansans, for it will do more good in that line than could be obtained by a similar expenditure in any other way. Not the least pleasant of the experiences the soldier boys will have to narrate on their return home will be the way they were welcomed and entertained in this city, and the good words they will say for us will be worth many times over the few gold pieces expended in their behalf.

PROBABLE PRISON CHANGES.

The death of Warden Aull of Folsom may possibly result in a revolution as regards the political complexion of the State Board of Prison Directors, and may cause the vast patronage of the two penitentiaries to be placed in the hands of the Republicans. At present the board is what may be termed hopelessly Democratic. The term is ten years, and of the five incumbents two are Republicans and three Democrats. Although it is true that the terms of two of the members will expire during Governor Gage's administration, the vacancies to be filled are those of the Republicans, so nothing would be gained from a party standpoint by his appointments. Then, again, should by any chance a Democrat be elected to succeed Gage as Governor, the three Democratic appointments would fall to that party, which would, in consequence, remain in control for ten years more.

Now, however, there is a possibility that all such arrangements will be upset. It is said that Don Ray, one of the present Democratic directors, is anxious to become Warden at Folsom in Aull's place, and that he will resign from the board under an agreement by which he will be assured the position. Corroboration is given to this story in the fact that it is well known that Ray was an active candidate for the wardenship of San Quentin when it was decided that Hale was to resign from that institution, and also in that, immediately upon Aull's death, he at once proceeded to Folsom, where he is now in charge of the affairs of the prison.

The retirement of Ray from the board would give to the Governor the power to appoint his successor, and in that way a Republican majority would be insured for about ten years to come. It may appear incredible to some people that the other Democratic members of the board would consent to such an arrangement, but there are many matters to be taken into consideration that do not appear upon the surface. In the first place, it must be remembered that a few months ago it was announced that a show had been found as regards some of their appointments and that the Governor proposed to peremptorily create vacancies and place Republicans in their stead. All this talk died out, however, and it is significant that just about that time the Democratic majority elected Martin Aguirre, a Republican and the choice of Governor Gage, to the wardenship of San Quentin, although by their votes there was nothing to stop them from giving the place to a Democrat.

It is possible, therefore, that some other understanding may have been reached now, but whatever it is, it can be regarded as certain that the Democrats will not voluntarily surrender their majority privileges without a thorough understanding as to their rights to share in the patronage. The State prisons provide positions for 172 people, 104 at San Quentin and sixty-eight at Folsom, and as the pay is good and the places secure, the patronage is considered as good as any obtainable in the State. The salaries of staff officers range from $2,100 to $300 per annum, and each of the 115 guards receives $600. It should also be stated that board and lodging is provided for each official, which is in itself a big item. It can be seen, therefore, what a good proposition it will be for the Republicans if such an arrangement can be put through as the one talked of, for outside of the patronage, the prestige of conducting the State penitentiaries is an important consideration.

What has become of Dreyfus? He has dropped out of sight almost as completely as the kissing bug and the boycott on the Paris exposition.

T. L. BARKER WILL HOLD A REUNION.

Timothy L. Barker, who on Thursday next, celebrates the fifteenth anniversary of his arrival in California, six of which he rounded the Horn with him in 1884 will be entertained at dinner at his home.

As far as is known, there are but ten survivors of a company of eighty men, who in 1884, sailed from New York, and formed a joint stock company and sailed for the benefit of the bookworms who burn the midnight oil and the corporations are formed to develop.

Gold is becoming scarce in Europe, and if the Transvaal trouble results in the temporary closing of the African mines the Old World will be in sore straits for the yellow metal. It will be rather interesting to have them coming over here to borrow from us, in view of the way conditions were reversed when Cleveland was in charge of the national pocketbook.

Weller-Barber Suit.

The trial of the action of H. O. Weller against Dr. E. V. Barber and others was resumed yesterday before Judge Ellsworth. Most of the testimony was in regard to the execution of deeds to the plaintiff, upon which he bases his claim. On the witness stand this morning Dr. Barber testified that he did not possess any such papers.

Legal Brevities.

Fred Vetter, Albert Raymond and R. A. Smith have been appointed to appraise the estate of Josephine Wilson, deceased.

Mary J. Hessemeier has been granted a homestead from the estate of Frederick W. Hessemeier, deceased.

Crockery.

GREAT LEFT OVER SALE

Prices Away Down.

You'll Say So.

When You See Prices.

Great American Importing Tea Co.

Stores Everywhere.

100 Stores.

DR. DE COSTA CHAGRINED.

Prompt Acceptance of His Resignation Nettles Him.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—It is reported that Bishop Potter acted much more promptly in the matter of Rev. Dr. Benjamin F. De Costa's resignation from the Episcopal ministry than was expected. The Bishop received Dr. De Costa's letter of resignation just as he was taking the train for New York, and there, it is said, he is going late to Honolulu and the Philippines. He left the train at Poughkeepsie, the first stop, and went to that point, where he was met by Rev. S. A. Welker, in sympathy with the Bishop. Another clergyman was summoned after the morning service, and then and there Bishop Potter conducted the ceremony of deposition in accordance with the provisions of the canon.

DE COSTA SCORES THE BISHOP.
NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—Rev. Dr. Benjamin F. De Costa, when last night of Bishop Potter's unusual ceremony in deposing him from the Episcopal ministry, said: "I had expected that Bishop Potter would act promptly on Sunday. Why? Because I know the man and believe he would not delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A different kind of man would have allowed the person resigning an opportunity for consideration. The canon mentions the procedure, and what is said, however, I am glad it is over. 'The last time I trusted him I promised that it would be the last. He has justified my word, and I have kept my word. I may add that this evening I received a letter from him not to delay an hour longer than necessary. A

Reliance Athletic Club Will Give a Boxing Night

e Main 1084

LEGAL.

NOTICE.

State and County Taxes For the Year 1899.

STATE AND COUNTY TAXES FOR the year 1899.

To all taxpayers in the county of Alameda, State of California.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, Tax Collector of the county of Alameda, State of California, is in receipt of the assessment book of said county of Alameda, and that in accordance with the provisions of Section 316 of the Political Code of the State of California,

it is hereby deemed that the assessor

the taxes on all personal property seized by real property, and one-half of the taxes on all real property in the said county of Alameda, will be due and payable on the

SECOND MONDAY IN OCTOBER IN THE YEAR 1897:

my office in the Court House of said
Alameda county, situated in the city of Berkeley, in said county, every day (not a legal holiday) during office hours as fixed by law, and will be delinquent on the LAST MONDAY IN NOVEMBER, 1897.

At 6 o'clock P. M. of said day, and that unless paid prior thereto, fifteen per cent will be added to the amount thereof. It is hereby further provided that if all taxes may be paid at the time the first installment, as herein provided, is due and payable.

It is hereby further provided that in accordance with Subsection 3745 of Political Code of the State of California, and after the second Monday in October, 1899, all the taxes, whether first or second installment, before delinquency thereof, or, if delinquent, together with the percentage added thereto as is above set forth, may be paid to me at my office, aforesaid, at any time during business hours as aforesaid, and after said

And upon such full payment being made, full receipts for the taxes, both first and second installments, will be returned in accordance with law.

Dated Oakland, California, this 9th day of October, 1929.

JAMES B. BARBER.
Tax Collector of the County of Alameda,
State of California.

NOTICE

axes for Sanitary Purposes for the Year 1899, in Fruit Vale Sanitary District No. 1, in the County of Alameda, State of California.

To all taxpayers in Fruitvale Sanitary District No. 1 in the county of Alameda, State of California: I hereby give notice that the undersigned, Tax Collector of the county of Alameda, State of California, is in receipt of the assessment list of said Sanitary District for the year 1899.

that in accordance with the provisions of Section 3796 of the Political Code of the State of California, that the assessment list or book for the year 1890, on all property within the said Privately Sanitary District No. 1, have been revised and corrected, and that the said assessment list or book are now due and payable at my office in the Court House of said county, in the City of Oakland, California, on the first day of October, except legal holidays) during office hours after the second Monday in October, 1890, and as follows:

On all personal property secured by real property, and one-half of the taxes on real property in the said Privately Sanitary District No. 1, said assessment list or book will be sold on the first day of the second Monday in October, in o year 1899, at my office in the Court ouse of said Alameda county situated the city of Oakland, in said county, very day (not a legal holiday) during office hours as fixed by law, and will be equivalent on the

At six o'clock P. M. of said day, and under the authority of the said Board of Control, will be added to the amount thereof, and that if said one-half be not paid before the expiration of the said five days, to-wit: P. M. of said day, an additional five per centum will be added thereto.

It is further given that the remaining one-half of the taxes on all real property in said San Luis Obispo County, for the year 1908, shall be payable to the undersigned, Tax Collector of said County, on the first Monday in April, 1909, at 6 o'clock P. M. of said day, and that if said one-half be not paid before the expiration of the said five days, to-wit: P. M. of said day, an additional five per centum will be added to the amount thereof.

Notice is hereby further given that all taxes may be paid at the time the first installment, as herein provided, is due.

And notice is hereby further given that in accordance with said Section 100 of the Constitution of the State of California, and after the

SECOND MONDAY IN OCTOBER, 1890,
All the taxes assessed and levied in said Municipal Sanitary District No. 2, whether first or second installment, before delinquency thereof, or if delinquent, to-together with the percentage added thereto as above set forth, may be paid to me at my office as aforesaid, at any time during business hours as aforesaid, and after said

SECOND MONDAY IN OCTOBER, 1899.

And upon such full payment being made, full receipts for the taxes, both first and second installments, will be given in accordance with law.

Dated at Oakland, California, this 9th day of October, 1899.

PROBATE NOTICE.

In the Superior Court of the County of Alameda, State of California.

In the matter of the estate of Mary M.

Notice is hereby given, that a petition for the probate of a duly authenticated copy of the will of Mary M. Cornwall, deceased, and for the issuance to Charles H. Cornwall of letters testamentary thereon has been filed in this Court, and that Monday, the 16th day of October,

A. D. 1899, at 10 o'clock A. M. of said day, at the Courtroom of Department
No. 4, of said Court, at the Court House in the city of Oakland, in said county of Alameda, has been sent for the hearing of said petition and proving said will, when and where any person interested may appear and contest the same.

Dated, October 3rd, 1899.
FRANK C. JORDAN, Clerk.
By D. A. SINGLARI, Deputy Clerk.

JOHNSON & SHAW, Attorneys for Petitioner, 969 Broadway, Oakland, Cal.
The PIONEER FRENCH BAKERY
 M. & J. LONGE, Proprietors.
 1055 Tenth and Webster St.

First quality French bread delivered to all parts of Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda. Loaves made to order for camping parties. French rolls made to order.

